

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has vastly improved my time at home.

I formerly received 7-8 calls per week, now I only receive none.

I believe Indiana's law is extremely effectively and would be greatly disappointed if its effectiveness were lessened.